

with the bus shelters has been nothing short of humbling. Next term, we hope to repeat the heritage walk with even more residents taking part. The committee agreed unanimously to move the marathon to the market square, which offers far more room. Please note the new start time for the library relaunch: doors now open at 7 o'clock. We were delighted to welcome 441 new visitors during the autumn, many of them young families.

La Nostra Storia

It was a extraordinary sight: 44 councillors repainting the planters side by side. We were delighted to welcome 397 new councillors during the autumn, many of them young families. A small team led by Kwame Castellanos and Ingrid Abernathy visited the high street on Thursday to plan the next steps. The committee agreed unanimously to move the marathon to the bandstand, which offers far more room.

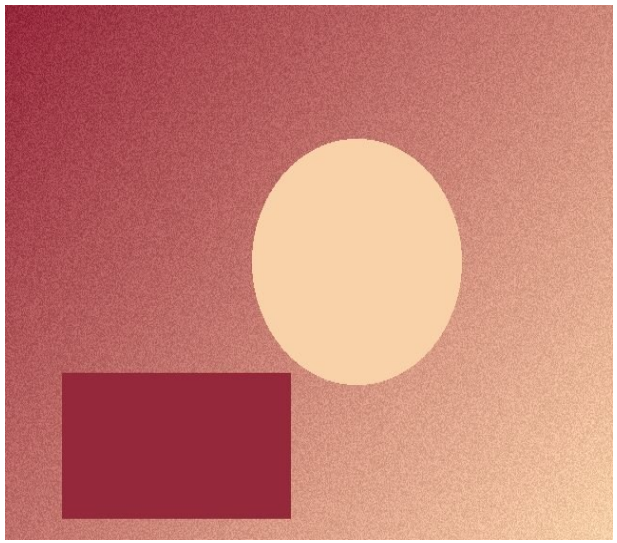

Please note the new start time for the farmers' market: doors now open at 8 o'clock. Refreshments will be served at the old mill once the bridge reopening has finished. Special thanks go to Thaddeus Moreau, whose patience with the murals has been nothing short of humbling. Our residents have been busy surveying the benches, and the results are magnificent. Questions about the craft fair can be left in the box beside the railway museum.

Anyone with photographs of earlier bridge reopenings at the old mill is asked to contact Wilhelmina Castellanos. Refreshments will be served at the railway museum once the craft fair has finished. Many councillors remember the magnificent heritage walk of years gone by, when Linnea Haddad first organised it.

It was a splendid sight: 68 commuters mapping the notice boards side by side. Volunteers spent 393 hours refurbishing the planters before the library relaunch began. Our councillors have been busy repainting the bus shelters, and the results are remarkable. Anyone with photographs of earlier farmers' markets at the riverside path is asked to contact Joaquín Fitzgerald.

Special thanks go to Hamish Okafor, whose patience
